

In this season of gratitude, we find ourselves surrounded by countless gifts. By the gift of performance, and the delight of sharing it with the world in our upcoming free streaming production of Peter Pan – A Musical Adventure, beginning December 19. By the joyful opportunity to give gifts to loved ones—all while giving back to local artists—with our first-ever virtual Holiday Artisan Market. And the greatest gift of all—connecting again with you! We hope this edition of Shakes@Home brightens your inbox and will feel like a present for your present—wherever you may be.
